MR. BLAINE'S REMARKS ON THE FUNDING BILL FOR THE PACIFIC RAILROADS

We copy from the Congressional Record of Feb. 17 the following remarks of Senator Blaine on the proposed funding bill for the Pacific Railroads:

Mr. Blaine. Mr. President: [illegible]

[illegible]

be submitted as an amendment by the Senator from Iowa [Mr. Allison]. It does not propose a specific sum annually. [illegible] compound interest and Babbage's calculators are very deceptive, and there are no number statements brought into legislative halls that are not a little tinctured with interest on the one side or the other. They are made out against the railroad or they are made out for the railroads and I distrust both. The Senator from Iowa [Mr. Allison] proposes, as I read it, to leave it to the Treasury Department to say just what sum shall be paid by those companies that shall entirely liquidate and discharge their obligation to the Government by the year 1900. I understood the Senator from California to indicate that he would go for a sinking fund which would discharge it in 1900. There is only a margin of five years difference then between the Senator from California and the Senator from Iowa. That is not a very great period in the life of a nation. I would hardly be willing to put this whole question at risk on a want [illegible] between 1900 and 1905. I do not think the public judgment of the American people would justify the Senate of the United States in coming to a sharp issue with the railroad companies and throwing the whole thing to the doubtful hazards and chances of a suit at law with its prolongations and its doubts and uncertainties [illegible] point of the ultimate liquidation being in 1900 or 1905.

I therefore have hoped in reading over the amendment suggested by the Senator from Iowa his proposition might be brought before the Senate for a separate vote. I could not support the one which the honorable Senator from Louisiana [Mr. West] has presented from the Railroad Committee. I could not vote for that of the Judiciary Committee which in my judgment, means litigation and controversy. But I would like to vote for some middle proposition that would be fair and just to all parties. [illegible]

WATCHMAKING IN AMERICA

[illegible]

Speech delivered in the [illegible] Tuesday the 14th of November by M. Edward Favre Perret, Member of the [illegible] Jury on watches at the Exhibition at Philadelphia [illegible] to the United States. [illegible]

THE ADDRESS

Gentlemen, I must first start with an [illegible]

[illegible]

Waltham Company give employment to 900 workmen, and make about 425 movements per day. The company again increased their capital in 1872, it amounts to-day to $1,500,000, besides $300,000 as reserve fund, or a capital of $1,800,000 francs. This watch factory is a real power; there is none like it in Europe. We have seen it in all its details and we have admired its splendid organization. Last May, on the eve of the Exhibition, we still seemed masters of the situation. One event, however dealt us a mortal blow. Be it through the effect of the crisis, or from any other motive the Elgin Company made, all of a sudden, a reduction on the price of their movements of 40 per cent, [illegible] stock of Swiss watches were seriously affected. [illegible]

[illegible]

It is unnecessary, gentlemen, to tell you how very detrimental this was to the Swiss watch. Still another and more important reason explains the growing prosperity of the American Company. Their tools work so regularly that all parts of the watch may be interchanged [illegible]

[illegible]

Gentlemen, I do not pretend to [illegible]

[illegible]

Had the Philadelphia Exhibition taken place five years later, we should have been totally annihilated without knowing whence or how we received the terrible blow. We [illegible] believed ourselves masters of the situation [illegible]

[illegible]

It has been said, and it has been complacently repeated, that the Americans do not make the entire watch, and that they are dependent upon Switzerland for several parts of the watch. This is a mistake. The Waltham Company make the entire watch—from the first screw to the face and dial. It would even be difficult for them to use our products, so great is the regularity, so minute the precision with which their machines work. They adjust on the regulation of the watch—so to say—with-

TUESDAY'S PERFORMANCES.

The record of Tuesday's proceedings in Washington shows that as usual the Democratic performance has failed to fulfil the Democratic promise. After protesting that there was no purpose to delay the count of Electoral votes by dilatory measures Randolph Tucker and associates arrested the proceedings and caused a separation of the two Houses upon an objection so utterly frivolous and unfounded that even the Democrats were ashamed to sustain it, and after causing the intended delay it was voted down in both branches.

Only a little further progress was made when another purely dilatory objection was raised in the case of Nevada and these interruptions having occupied the time until after six o'clock, the House took another recess until this forenoon. The appearances indicate that while there are a majority of the Democrats who have become convinced that it would be unwise to resort to violent measures, yet they are willing to encourage factious interruptions as a gratification of spite.

The debate in the House on the Louisiana question not only enabled the Democratic orators to vent their wrath in frothy denunciations, but it also afforded opportunity for two of those peculiar Massachusetts Republicans to emulate the superior virtue of Purman, and record their names side by side with the bull-dozers of the House. We hope Massachusetts appreciates the importance of having two such eminent purists as Messrs. Seelye and Pierce, although we believe they both retire to private life at the close of this session. The editor of the Boston Advertiser who recently sent to his paper, from Washington a very feeble essay, concluding with a gratuitous slur at the quality of Maine Republicanism should improve the opportunity of studying Seelye and Pierce as representatives of that type so much admired by his journal. We did not think it necessary to notice the Advertiser's fling at the Republicanism of this State, as that paper's opinions of Republicanism are not highly valued in this portion of the country where political convictions are not influenced by Southern trade; but its insult has so promptly recoiled in the stupid action of two of its favorite representatives that we cannot avoid a bare reference to the fact.

It was in Massachusetts alone, of all the States, that the suggestion originated that an Elector might betray his constituents; it is a fact that on the 6th of December there was more anxiety to learn that no Massachusetts Elector had proved false than was felt concerning any of the so-called "carpet-baggers" and colored men whom Tilden's agents were trying to buy up in the South; it was a Massachusetts man who stultified himself in discussing just how an Elector could conscientiously betray his trust, and it is now two Massachusetts Republicans who asperse the judgment of the tribunal which they were among the loudest to invoke, and who extend aid and comfort to the party which has drenched the soil of Louisiana with innocent blood.

When the editor of the Advertiser again ventures to institute comparisons between the Republicanism of Massachusetts and Maine, we trust he will refer to the record of the Louisiana vote, where he will find that even Mr. Burleigh was unwilling to discredit the State of Maine by repudiating the judgment of the Commission which he voted to establish.

TILDEN'S BALLOT-STUFFERS. A Baltimore despatch to the N. Y. Times says: "Parties here have no trouble in identifying the leader of the Baltimore ballot-box stuffers at the Cincinnati election of October last, mentioned in Holland's testimony concerning the Democratic frauds then perpetrated in the latter city. He is well known to have been Harry McCoy, Chairman of the Maryland Democratic Executive Committee, and one of the leading Democrats of the State. He left here early in October in charge of a large gang of experienced ballot-box stuffers and repeaters, whom he divided between Cincinnati and Indianapolis, and brought back after they had done their work. McCoy was on the slate for Collector of Customs or Naval Officer at this port in the event of Tilden becoming President."

In announcing the Louisiana decision the other day one of our head-lines, referring to the collapse of the Democratic "case," said "Nothing left but Cronin's Nose." The situation and the 'nose' seem to have appeared in the same light to the Democratic correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, who telegraphed as follows from Washington:

"Cronin's illu-cinated bugle is all that is left. It is large enough to hold the party and Tilden with it, but in the mean time the bridge may cave in by the weight of the eight men who will cross it, leaving seven on the opposite bank."

The Boston Traveller makes the following hard hit:

The Herald, and a large class of its patrons, have a real grievance in common. "We have heard of a jail in this Commonwealth," says the Herald, "where the prisoners are deprived of the Herald to read." We agree with the Herald that it is cruel to deprive a man of his daily organ merely because he takes the high road to the penitentiary, but we disagree in the theory that the cruelty is unnecessary, since the penal institutions are in a certain sense reformatory, and it is necessary that all those who persist in crime should be delivered from temptation.

The Tribune's Washington correspondent says that Judge Jeremiah Black and Mr. Groesbeck of Cincinnati, who has been engaged as special counsel, tell some of their hot-headed Democratic friends that they have not a word of fault to find with the Tribunal; that there are very grave questions to be considered on both sides; that it is a serious thing to go behind the State certificate in questions of this sort, and that if such a precedent is once established it may lead to the destruction of the Republic.

The Republican Senators held a caucus Saturday morning, at which, although no vote was taken, an informal understanding was arrived at that if the Democrats should determine to filibuster in the House to prevent the completion of the count of the Electoral vote, it would be the duty of the President of the Senate, at some time before the 4th of March, in joint convention, if possible, and, if not, then, in the Senate, to complete the count, and to declare Gov. Hayes elected.

Randolph Tucker has explained the trouble with his head:—"Vacuum."

Senator Conkling dodged the vote on the Louisiana decision.

GOVERNOR GROVER.

[From the N. Y. Tribune.]

Governor Grover sends to the San Francisco agent of the Associated Press a curiously worded disclaimer. He says: "I have never sent to Gov. Tilden any telegram signed 'Gobble' or 'Governor,'" and "I have never used a cipher in my life." And yet it seems to us that this hardly covers the case.

We have obtained from T. Nelson & Sons the "Household English Dictionary" said to have been used in the translation of the cipher despatches. We have tried this key on the Gobble despatch, and it fits exactly. Take each word in the cipher, find it in the dictionary, turn over four pages, and in the corresponding line you have the word to be understood. The translation already given of the celebrated "Heed scantiness cramp" message is thus verified beyond dispute. It reads, "I shall decide every point," etc. Nobody but the Governor could decide, and he did decide exactly as the telegram said that he would.

The explanation probably is that Gov. Grover, having no cipher, wrote the despatch in plain English and handed it to Patrick, who turned it into the Gramercy Park argot. But perhaps Mr. Patrick will explain.

MORE DEMOCRATIC AUTHORITY.

In its denunciations of the Electoral Commission for sustaining the Constitutional right of the States to appoint Electors "in such manner as the Legislature thereof may direct," the local Democratic organ has omitted to quote the following emphatic declarations of its favorite political authority, the N. Y. Sun, on the 23d of November last:

"Any attempt by the two Houses or either of them to go behind the certificates and to determine the right of the Electors to give the votes which they have certified when the State has decided that right by its competent authorities, will lead to conclusions in which the people of this country will not acquiesce. Thus if shall be found on an inspection of the certificates of the Electoral Colleges when they are opened in the presence of the two Houses that Mr. Hayes has received 185 votes or more, that result must be accepted by the people as the legal result, whatever may have been the frauds committed in Louisiana or any other State in taking or returning or counting the popular vote."

An exchange tells the story in rhyme as follows:

With a bag'l of money to spread o'er the land,
Sammy Tild, as he thought, a most powerful hand;
While Hayes, with no tactics, yet the spirit re as a "trick,"
Calmly sticks to his duties and wins the odd trick.

FRANKLIN HOUSE,

Harlow Street, — Bangor, Maine.

GEORGE F. HILL, Prop'r.

This spacious and popular Hotel has been thoroughly renovated by the present proprietor. Several of the choice rooms have been refurnished, and all the appointments of the house are now first class. The Holly Water has been introduced, and the establishment is heated by steam. These improvements make the house thoroughly comfortable, convenient and pleasant.

The location of the FRANKLIN HOUSE is one of the most agreeable, healthy and central in the city. It is within one minute's walk of the Post Office, Custom House and Norombega Hall, and convenient to all the business parts of the city.

Mr. ROYAL QUIMBY, the old and popular Clerk of the house, will continue to discharge the duties of that position.

With these advantages the proprietor flatters himself that he will be enabled fully to satisfy the expectations of the old patrons of the house, and make it a desirable resort for the travelling public. The table will be made second to that of no other hotel in Maine.

ABOUT LIFE INSURANCE.

The legitimate demands for Life insurance are to-day greater upon the public than at any period of time since the war closed.

The reasons are numerous enough; a few can be mentioned.

The desire of the husband and father or other person to protect those who may depend upon a single life for support has in no way abated; he is still anxious regarding their welfare and wants something to take the place of his earnings and income in the event of his death.

He has a sum of money over and above the actual wants of his family, to invest for their protection; a guarantee for the future.

He no longer goes to the West to buy ten per cent. interest paying bonds. On inquiry he is told that savings banks can now pay but five per cent. interest. Life insurance is mentioned and some one loudly exclaims, "The Continental, Security, and New Jersey Mutual Life Companies have ... stop here without any investigation— the history of life insurance, and is not ... that there are a number of companies ... sound as the hills" and have been ... on that basis for more than thirty ... whose business has not been ... flourish of trumpets or great ... the future, but which have worked ... and they have, by fair and honorable ... These Companies are large, they ... of prudent directors, chosen in ... by the policy-holders themselves ... for managing officers men of experience ... That they are honorable ... with pride for proof to their record ... in the administration of the affairs of ... the stability of the foundation of ... All agree that the premium is ad... cover the risk insured. The main and ... will, money paid for life insurance ... properly administered? It is a proper ... for every one contemplating life insurance ... of himself. The history of the ... United States is the only proper answer ... been?

... all of the sins that have been committed by those in charge of life insurance funds, stripping bare to the public gaze the fact of recent failures, and with this staring eye upon this dark picture of wrong, still life insurance as a whole, stands the test of comparison better than any other financial institution.

Consider the vast sums of money which have been paid for railroad bonds and stocks now of no value; the large number of savings banks that have failed, the pledges of other corporate bodies which have proved worthless, the promises of individuals that have not been faithfully kept, and we may then form a proper idea as to the comparative standing of life companies with other means of investment where money has been entrusted for certain purposes to be realized in the future. And this brings the question of trust; we must trust some one, business cannot be done properly where faith is not broad enough to give confidence and credit. The risk of fraud and bad management must be taken in every enterprise requiring trust in others. The bank cashier may prove dishonest, yet the exchange of the world continues to be made on credit.

The proper course for one to pursue is to investigate the company which invites attention.

But how shall it be done? We answer, there are ways and means of knowing. "Read and you will know," is a saying so true that it is not sufficiently realized.

Those desirous of discussing this subject further, or who may wish to look into the standing of life companies, or to know especially concerning the standing of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, with sound assets of more than forty five million dollars, a surplus above all liability of more than three and one half million dollars, having paid over twenty five million dollars for death claims alone, are invited to call upon, or correspond with the undersigned, or any of the Company's accredited agents in the State of Maine, or Lower Provinces of Canada.

The errors and villainies of the past will teach us how to avoid future mistakes, and render fraud and bad management more difficult hereafter.

WASHINGTON Feb 20

The Senate at 11 o'clock repaired in a body to the Hall of Representatives to attend the counting of the Electoral vote

The Michigan Priority

Upon the return of the Senate to its chamber the debate upon the eligibility of D. L. Crossman one of the Michigan Electors was carried on under the ten minutes rule. Messrs Bayard, Stevenson, Maxey and other Democratic Senators argued that the evidence of disqualification in this case was not sufficient and they would therefore favor the counting of the vote

Senator Allison's Resolution

Mr Allison modified his resolution so as to read

Resolved That the objection made to the vote of Daniel L. Crossman one of the Electors of Michigan is not good in law [illegible]

Resolved That the said vote be counted with the other votes of the Electors of said State notwithstanding the objection made thereto

Whyte Seeks to Multiply Words

The discussion was continued by Senators Morton, Stevenson, Bogy, Kernan, Sargent, Morrill, McDonald and Saulsbury and then Mr Whyte submitted the following as a substitute

Ordered, That while [illegible] the case of the Senate the Senator or Representative or person holding an office of trust or profit shall be appointed an Elector and the provision of the Constitution shall be carried [illegible] into rigid execution [illegible] the exclusion of the vote of Daniel Crossman one of the Electors of the State of Michigan and in this vote should be counted. His substitute of Whyte was rejected by a strict party vote—yeas 2 [illegible]

McDonald Tries Again

The question [illegible] on the resolution of Mr Allison, Mr McDonald moved to amend the last resolution so it would read

Resolved That the first objection made to the vote of Daniel L. Crossman one of the Electors of Michigan is not sustained by any lawful evidence

Rejected—Yeas [illegible] nays 39, a strict party vote

The Objections Overruled—Even the Democrats Ashamed of Them

The Joint Session Resumed

At [illegible] a message was received from the House announcing the action of that body [illegible] Michigan [illegible] Mr Allison the Senate proceeded to the Hall of the House to resume the Electoral count

Separation on the Nevada Case

Upon the return of the Senate to its Chamber [illegible] the President pro tem [illegible] that the Senate had withdrawn from the joint meeting to consider the objection [illegible] to the vote of the State of Nevada [illegible] of Dagget [illegible] Elector from [illegible] that [illegible] taken by the Committee on the Powers and Privileges of the House in regard to his holding the office of Clerk of the United States Courts but which he stated he resigned on the 6th of November last

Resolution Submitted

Mr Jones of Nevada submitted the resolution that the vote of P. M. Daggett be counted with the other votes of Nevada notwithstanding the objection made thereto

The Objections Overruled

IN JOINT CONVENTION

The Louisiana Decision Announced

At [illegible] the presence of the Senate at the door of the hall was announced and the members rose and remained standing while the Senators entered and took seats on the Democratic side of the House. The Presiding Officer Ferry, the Speaker's chair called the meeting to order and stated that the two Houses having separately [illegible] considered and decided the objections to the certificates from the State of Louisiana and that the action of each House would now be read. This having been done the Presiding Officer announced that the two Houses not having decided otherwise the decision of the Commission would stand in force and he directed the tellers to declare the vote of Louisiana

Louisiana Counted for Hayes and Wheeler

Senator Allison one of the tellers thereupon announced that Louisiana had given 8 votes for R. B. Hayes for President and 8 votes for W. A. Wheeler for Vice President. There was no manifestation of any kind at the announcement, and the opening and counting of certificates proceeded in alphabetical order

The Count Proceeds with Maine—A Frivolous Objection to Michigan

The State of Maine was counted giving 7 votes for Hayes and Wheeler, Maryland 8 votes for Tilden and Hendricks and Massachusetts 13 votes for Hayes and Wheeler. When the certificates from Michigan were read giving 11 votes for Hayes and Wheeler, Tucker of Va rose and presented an objection to the counting of the vote of Daniel L. Crossman, one of the Electors declaring that one Benton Hanchett, having been elected one of the Electors of the State of Michigan, and having held and still holding the office of U. S. Commissioner had absented himself from the meeting of Electors on the 6th of December and that his place had been filled by the other Electors. The objection claims that the fact that Hanchett absented himself from the meeting did not create a vacancy, and therefore that said Crossman had not been duly appointed an Elector. The objection also submits the testimony of Benton Hanchett before the Committee in which he states that he has never resigned his office of U. S. Commissioner, and that he absented himself for that reason from the meeting of Electors. The objection is signed by Senators Norwood, Wallace, Barnum and Hereford, and by Representatives A. S. Williams, Tucker, Vance of Ohio, McMahon, Rice, Sparks, Marsh, Savage and Hurd

The Houses Separate on this Foolery

The Presiding Officer then asked if there were any further objections, and none being made the Senate withdrew to let the objection be considered and acted upon by each House separately.

Reassembled—Michigan Counted

At 5 20 the Senators again entered the Hall, the Presiding Officer took the Speaker's Chair and the concurrent action of each House in overruling the objection in the case of one of the Michigan Electors was announced and the 11 votes of that State were announced as being cast for Hayes and Wheeler.

Another Dilatory Move—Objections to Nevada.

Then followed the State of Minnesota with five votes for Hayes and Wheeler, Mississippi with eight votes for Tilden and Hendricks, Missouri with 15 votes for Tilden and Hendricks, Nebraska with three votes for Hayes and Wheeler, Nevada with three votes for Hayes and Wheeler

Mr Springer of Ill, objected to the count of one of the three votes of Nevada on the ground that Elector C. B. Daggett was at the time of his appointment and for a long time previous and thereafter continued to be a U. S. Commissioner for the Circuit and District Courts of the District of Nevada. The objection is signed by Representatives Springer, Tucker, Vance of Ohio, Savage, Sparks, Marsh and Jenks and Senators Barnum, Wallace and Hereford

The Houses Separate Again

The objection having been read the Senate withdrew

House

Assembling of the House

WASHINGTON Feb 20. The House met at 10 o'clock. A half hour was consumed in calling the roll, after which Mr Gibson offered a resolution that the Electoral vote of Louisiana be not counted for Hayes and Mr Hurlbut moved to amend by striking out the word not

The Discussion Opened

The discussion was opened by Mr New who said he had voted for the Electoral Commission bill without [illegible] giving [illegible] confidence that [illegible] either expressed or implied would be ignored or treated as surplusage

Seelye Belabors Both Sides

Mr Seelye said that in the case of the Louisiana election it seemed to him perfectly clear that the charges made by each party against the other were in the main true. Not yet were they proved more conclusively than the fraud and corruption charged on the one side and intimidation and cruelty charged on the other. While of the two sides we [illegible] the furthest in their wrong doing it would be very hard to say [illegible] corruption [illegible] seemed as [illegible] horrible [illegible] that the Commission had clearly interpreted and accurately applied the laws [illegible] principles on which the laws must rest, [illegible] Nevertheless [illegible] engendered, [illegible] unjust statutes [illegible] to [illegible]

Mr Joyce Supports the Decision

Mr Joyce supported the decision of the Electoral Commission [illegible] that if the decision had been the other way [illegible] a bolder corruption would have been fixed from the Democratic party

Mr Levy's Remarks

Mr Levy of [illegible] made an appeal to the [illegible] American heart in behalf of the State of Louisiana [illegible] domestic and national peril, and he went on to denounce the frauds committed by the Returning Board to which the Commission now gives force and effect

Mr Townsend Defends the Decision

Mr Townsend of [illegible] expressed his astonishment at the opposition made to the decision of the Electoral Commission by the Democratic party [illegible] Commission [illegible]

McMahon Says Tilden Carried Louisiana

Mr McMahon of Ohio [illegible] to the American people than the decision in the Florida case. In that case the Commission had simply disregarded the Constitution [illegible] to Louisiana [illegible] Louisiana [illegible] fairly and honestly as Hayes had carried Ohio

Rice Wants the Decision Referred Back

Mr Rice of Ohio protested against the wrongs and violence embodied in the decision and argued that the whole subject should be referred back to the Commission

Mr Crapo asks Pertinent Questions

Mr Crapo of Mass said he would not defend the action of the board but he asked what must have been the condition of a State [illegible] such a board necessary [illegible] their political rights [illegible] the desperate and the lawless

Mr Watterson Counsels Moderation

Mr Watterson said two courses are open to the majority on this floor—the one [illegible] and childish on the other hand without offering needless obstruction to the progress of events, to earnestly and manly but firmly protest against what we believe a great and grievous wrong. In my judgment the latter is our clear and bounden duty

Mr Dunford Defends the Decision

Mr Dunford defended the decision as one which outside of party feeling would meet the approval of the whole American people

Mr Pierce With great Diffidence

Mr Pierce of Mass said he would be glad to avoid the responsibility of voting on the question presented, but he did not think it could be avoided. It was with great diffidence that he ventured to dissent from the decision of the Commission, but the rule it laid down was one he could not conscientiously endorse. The Commission had refused to receive evidence other than the certificate from the Governor of the State. It could never have been intended by the fathers of the Constitution that Congress should not be able to scrutinize the returns of the Electoral vote. He was aware that in the position he took he stood almost alone in his party, but he should be recreant to his convictions if he neglected to place on record his dissent from the rule proposed to be established (Applause on Democratic side)

Ellis Gets Excited

Mr Ellis of Louisiana, argued against the decision and characterized the members of the Returning Board as men whose souls were scorched with perjury blacker than that of Judas Iscariot. But the deed was done; the crime was accomplished. For four years more the Republican party would hold the shadow of Executive power. In four years more the great American people wronged and outraged would arise in their majesty and might hurl such drunken guests from power forever and brand with the indelible brand of infamy those men who had aided countenanced, abetted or defended the monstrous crime. (Applause)

Close of the Debate—Gibson's Resolution Agreed To

Cox opposed the adoption of the report of the committee, Kelley favored it and Pratt defended it. The debate closed at 1 o'clock and the House then proceeded to vote on Gibson's resolution, that the decision of the Commission be not agreed to. Adopted—yeas 172, nays 99—a party vote, except that of Seelye and Pierce of Mass, who voted with the Democrats

Message to the Senate

A message was then sent to the Senate that the House was ready to meet that body in joint convention.

Randall Encourages an Attempt to Filibuster.

On the retiring of the Senate to consider the objections to the Michigan Elector, Mr Southard of Ohio, moved the House take a recess until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

Mr. Hale of Maine, raised a point of order that the general scope of the Electoral Commission Bill intended to prevent delay and that a motion for a recess was not now in order.

The Speaker said as he understood the intent and scope of the bill a motion for a recess was in order and he therefore overruled the point of order.

Wood Opposes Delay.

In the course of the discussion over the question of a recess Wood, of N. Y., opposed the proposition and submitted that as it was still early in the day the objection to the count from Michigan should be presented at once, discussed and voted upon so that the Electoral count should proceed

Mr Tucker, of Va disclaimed any idea of interposing the objection for the purpose of delay. He was prepared now to argue and maintain it before the House. He had nothing to do with the motion for a recess

Southard Rampant

Southard, who made the motion for a recess, defended it on the ground that the members should have time to consider and act upon the objection. He for one desired delay and he was in no haste to install a man in the Presidential chair several days before the Constitutional time

The Motion Voted Down—A List of the Bulldozers

On a standing vote the motion for a recess was voted down by a large majority and then the yeas and nays were demanded and taken and again the motion was rejected—yeas 87, nays 192. As the vote on this motion for a recess may be regarded as somewhat significant, the affirmative vote is given in full as follows

Yeas—Ashe, Banning, Blackburn, Boone, Cabell, Caldwell of Ala, Caldwell of Tenn, Cate, Clarke of Ky, [illegible] Cook, Cowan, Davis, Durand, Ellis, [illegible] Fuller, Hamilton of Ind, Hartridge, Hooker, Humphreys, Hurd, Jones of Ky, Knott, Lander of Ind, Lane, Levy, Lynde, McMahon, Meade, Milliken, Money, Morrison, Mutchler, O'Brien, O'Dell, Phillips of Mo, Poppleton, Rice, Pusey of N J, [illegible] Sheakley, Slemons, Smith of Ga, Southard, Sparks, Terry, Thompson of Mass, Thomas, Throckmorton, Turney, Vance of Ohio, Walling, Walsh, Whitthorne, Wigginton and Wilson of W Va—[illegible]

Randolph Tucker Makes a Stupendous Effort—He Discovers a "Vacuum"

Mr Tucker then offered a resolution declaring that Daniel L. Crossman was not appointed an Elector by the State of Michigan as the Legislature directed and that his vote as Elector shall not be counted. He went on to argue that Benton Hanchett having been elected by the people an Elector and being ineligible on account of holding a Federal Commission there was no provision in the law of the Legislature authorizing the College of Electors to [illegible] another person in his place. The College of Electors was [illegible] a vacancy [illegible] Where a man who was elected to an office [illegible] there was no vacancy [illegible] the Constitution [illegible] the House would say that a man should [illegible] the office of Presidential Elector who [illegible] Constitution [illegible]

After further debate on the House adopted a resolution offered by [illegible] of Pennsylvania [illegible] the vote [illegible] Hanchett [illegible] for 12 [illegible] Elector [illegible]

The House takes a Recess till Wednesday Morning

Mr Springer moved that the House take a recess till 10 o'clock to-morrow. Although there was a majority of 20 against the motion, [illegible] several Republicans [illegible] the vote from [illegible] the House then at 6 P M took a recess till 10 o'clock to-morrow

ARTISTIC CONFECTIONERY. We have received from Fraser, the confectioner, and caterer, a very handsome specimen of his artistic skill which possesses the double merit of being "pretty to look at and good to eat." It is a basket of fruit and flowers constructed entirely of delicious confection ry, the basket containing clusters of pears with a floral growth of morning glories in full bloom. The sides of the basket are extended upwards, forming an arch of trellis and scroll work of transparent amber tint and the design and workmanship of the whole are most artistic and graceful. In fact Fraser is an artist in his profession and whenever he has a little leisure he delights in some such skilful production as that we have described

Although young in years, he is old in deviltry, and known among the good people of Ontario as the "Little Ingun Devil." His performances are said to be prodigious. Various portions of the address elicited hearty applause, which was also given at the conclusion. Mrs. C. F. GOTHIC ARCHITECTURE. A fine audience attended the sixth of Rev. Mr Knapp's lectures at Andrews' Academy last evening, the subject being Gothic Architecture. Mr Knapp began with a rapid review of the various orders of architecture treated of in previous lectures and then described the Gothic as the latest in development. Its style of architecture is distinguished by the flying buttresses, the pointed arch, the numerous pinnacles and that combination of massiveness and elaboration which makes it the architectural type of restless progress and diversity of forms. The subject was illustrated by stereoptic views of the famous cathedrals in France and Germany, the lecturer pointing out and commenting upon the characteristic features and details [illegible] in his peculiarly interesting manner. Beginning with the Notre Dame, of Paris exterior and interior views were successively given of the cathedrals at Rheims, Rouen, Amiens, Chartres and Cologne, the latter being described in detail as the most perfect example of Gothic architecture in the world. The descriptive comments were interspersed with many fine passages of aesthetic criticism and philosophical application. [illegible] Byzantine and the Gothic styles of architecture. The lecture was one of the most interesting of the series and all interest will attach to the continuation of the subject [illegible] will be given on Tuesday evening next on Italian and English Gothic

WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF PURE COD LIVER OIL AND LIME. The advantage of this compound over the plain Oil is that the nauseating taste of the Oil is entirely removed and the whole rendered entirely palatable. The offensive taste of the Oil has long acted as a prominent objection to it, but in this form the trouble is entirely obviated. A host of certificates might be given here to testify to the excellence and success of "Wilbor's Cod Liver Oil and Lime." From Hon W. H. Jones, of W. Dover, Vt

"I have been troubled from my boyhood with chronic or hereditary lung complaint. Some years since, early in the winter, I took cold, which as usual settled into a severe cough, which continued to increase as the season advanced, although I made use of all the cough remedies I had knowledge of. My family physician also prescribed for me, but I experienced no relief. During all this time I was gradually running down, losing flesh and strength, until my friends as well as myself became very much alarmed, thinking I should waste away in consumption. While in Boston, during the spring following, I was induced to try WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. After one day's trial I was sensible that it was relieving me, in ten days time my cough had entirely ceased, and I was soon restored to health and strength. I have ever since kept the BALSAM in my house and whenever any member of my family has a cough or cold it is immediately resorted to. No family should be without it."

CONSUMPTIVES, TAKE NOTICE.—Every moment of delay makes your cure more hopeless, and much depends on the judicious choice of a remedy. The amount of testimony in favor of Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup as a cure for consumption far exceeds all that can be brought to support the pretensions of any other medicine. See Dr. Schenck's Almanac containing the certificates of many persons of the highest respectability who have been restored to health, after being pronounced incurable by physicians of acknowledged ability. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup alone has cured many, as these evidences will show; but the cure is often promoted by the employment of two other remedies which Dr. Schenck provides for the purpose. These additional remedies are Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills. By the timely use of these medicines according to directions Dr. Schenck certifies that most any case of Consumption may be cured.

Dr. Schenck is professionally at his principal office Corner Sixth and Arch Sts Philadelphia every Monday where all letters for advice must be addressed.

MARK THESE FACTS!
The Testimony of the Whole World.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.
"I had no appetite, Holloway's Pills gave me a hearty one."
"Your Pills are marvelous."
"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."
"Dr. Holloway has cured my headache that was chronic."
"I gave one of your Pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."
"My nausea of a morning is now cured."
"Your box of Holloway's Ointment cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Ointment behind the ears, and the noise has left."
"Send me two boxes, I want one for a poor family."
"I enclose a dollar, your price is 25 cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."
"Send me five boxes of your Pills."
"Let me have three boxes of your Pills by return mail, for Chills and Fever."
I have over 200 such testimonials as these, but want of space compels me to conclude.

For Cutaneous Disorders,
And all eruptions of the skin, this Ointment is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS
Invariably cure the following diseases:

Disorder of the Kidneys.
In all diseases affecting these organs, whether they secrete too much or too little water, or whether they be afflicted with stone or gravel, or with aches and pains settled in the loins over the regions of the kidneys, these Pills should be taken according to the printed directions, and the Ointment should be well rubbed into the small of the back at bed time. This treatment will give almost immediate relief when all other means have failed.

For Stomachs out of Order.
No medicine will so effectually improve the tone of the stomach as these Pills; they remove all acidity occasioned either by intemperance or improper diet. They reach the liver and reduce it to a healthy action; they are wonderfully efficacious in cases of spasm—in fact they never fail in curing all disorders of the liver and stomach.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS are the best known in the world for the following diseases: Ague, Asthma, Bilious Complaints, Blotches on the Skin, Bowels, Consumption, Debility, Dropsy, Dysentery, Erysipelas, Female Irregularities, Fevers of all kinds, Fits, Gout, Headache, Indigestion, Inflammation, Jaundice, Liver Complaints, Lumbago, Piles, Rheumatism, Retention of Urine, Scrofula or King's Evil, Sore Throats, Stone and Gravel, Tic-Douloureux, Tumors, Ulcers, Worms of all kinds, Weakness from any cause, etc.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.
None are genuine unless the signature of J. HAYDOCK, as agent for the United States, surrounds each box of Pills and Ointment. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.
Sold at the manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY & CO., New York, and by all respectable druggists and dealers in medicine throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents, and $1 each.
There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.
N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.
